

ACCESS TO HCV THERAPY IN EGYPT

Prof. Gamal Esmat

Prof. Hepatology & Ex. Vice President of Cairo University, Egypt
Member of WHO Strategic Committee for Viral Hepatitis

PHC 2018 - www.aphc.info

www.gamalesmat.com

Current situation of hepatitis C in Egypt (98 million)

- ✓ Prevalence
- ✓ Mortality
- ✓ Number of liver transplantations
- ✓ Total number of patients treated by DAAs so far( +about 300.000 on Private

Number of treated patients through the Egyptian national treatment program with DAAs till the end of 2017

1,344,496 Patients

NCCVH registry

Mostafa A., Journal of Hepatology 2016 vol. 64 j 1240–1246

Current resources and programs for HCV

- ✓ Current resources provided by Health Authorities
- ✓ DAAs available
- ✓ Program for screening
- ✓ Program to improve access to treatment

Current national treatment program centers

Total number 172 units

NCCVH 71 units

MOH 101 units

Egypt was the first country
allover the world to reimburse DAA treatment for HCV patients regardless of fibrosis
starting from May 2015

Future actions planned

✓ To improve screening

Planned to screen 3
NGOs

✓ To facilitate access

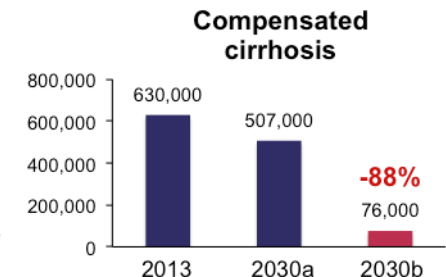

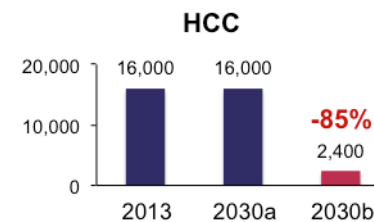

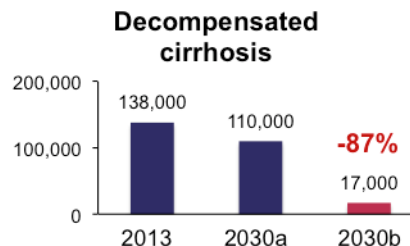

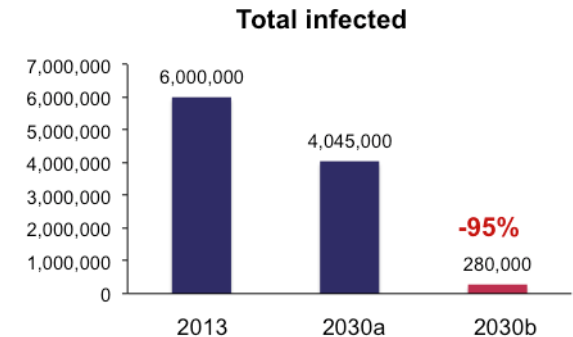

Utilization of primary
✓ Future drugs available

One pill fit for all and

✓ Other major actions

HCV treatment in 2013 and strategies to reduce the burden of HCV by 2030

	2013	2030
		a) Increase efficacy only	b) Increase efficacy and treatment
Treated (annual)	65,000	65,000	325,000
Treatment rate	1.1%	1.1%	7.1%
Average SVR	48%	90% (2014)	90%
Newly diagnosed (annual)	125,000	125,000	340,500
Common treatment age	15–59	15–59	15–74
Treated stages	≥ F2	≥ F2	≥ F0

Waked I, et al. Arab J Gastroenterol 2014;15:45–52

From Land Of History

We Promise That will Make HCV a History

THANK YOU

